THIS NEW CENTURY CLUB entered upon the work for the year most enthusiastically today when the retiring officers were hostesses to the new officers and the other members at a most charmingly appointed luncheon given at luncheon in the banquet room of the Skirvin in honor of the installation of the incoming officers. Yellow and white, the club colors, predominated in the decorations. Large yellow carnations tied with yellow tulle formed a golden centerpiece and the place cards and favors were yellow and white. During luncheon there were informal afternoon dresses and toasts which were followed by the "vacation reminiscences" of the different members. In all it was a delightful afternoon of "getting acquainted" after the separations of the summer and before settling down to the serious work of the winter. The retiring officers who were the hostesses of the afternoon were Mrs. John Ward, president; Mrs. H. C. Watson, vice-president; Mrs. J. M. Stubblefield, recording secretary; Mrs. Warren E.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR THICK, WAVY, FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Draw a moist cloth through hair and double its beauty at once.

Save your hair! Dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Immediate? — Yes! Certain — that's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after an application of Dandruff.

Also try this—moisten a cloth with a little Dandruff and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggly, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Beside beautifying the hair, Dandruff dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp.

Dandruff is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, charming lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25-cent tube of Krown't Dandruff from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed—Ad.

Mrs. Astor to Give Ball for Sister

MISS ALICE HUNTINGTON

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Miss Alice Huntington, debutante sister of Mrs. Vincent Astor, is to give a large ball at the old Astor residence in Fifth Avenue, on Christmas eve. Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Astor are soon to take possession of the house where the late Mrs. Astor for years gave the most brilliant social entertainments in New York. Miss Huntington is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Huntington of this city and Staatsburg, N. Y.

Miss Pearl Skirvin has just returned to New York after an extended tour of all summer through the White mountains of New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Carpenter Jr., of Oswego, Kan., will arrive Friday to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Carpenter for several days.

Mrs. Orin Ashton left Monday for her home in Chickasha. Mrs. Ashton had charge of the culinary department at the fair.

Miss Pauline Stanford will leave tonight for Hollins, Va., where she will enter Hollins college.

Mr. Edward Roth left last night for a short visit to Kansas City.

Mrs. E. A. Ashton of Chickasha is the guest for a few days of her daughter, Mrs. George B. Rittenhouse and Carrie Switzer of Roswell, New Mexico, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. M. L. Turner. The high score of the afternoon was made by Mrs. George K. Williams. Mrs. Untweller receiving the second prize. Mrs. Calle R. Brooks will entertain the club next Wednesday.

The Duplicate Whist club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jacques Dur, who had as special guests Mrs. Cadie Luitweiler and Miss Carrie Switzer of Roswell, New Mexico, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. M. L. Turner. The high score of the afternoon was made by Mrs. George K. Williams. Mrs. Untweller receiving the second prize. Mrs. Calle R. Brooks will entertain the club next Wednesday.

Miss Pauline Stanford was hostess to the Wednesday Lutheon club yesterday, having as extra guests Mrs. Mildred Russell, Mrs. Myron Chambers and Mrs. Althea Barr Taff. Mrs. George L. Cooke made the high score and the club adjourned to meet next Wednesday with Mrs. B. Franklin Gill.

The Kilkare club was entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Minor.

The friends of Mr. C. L. Hughes, who has been for the past two months ill with typhoid fever in the camp hospital at Brownsville, Texas, will be glad to know that he is convalescing and will be able to be brought home shortly.

The Halcyon club met last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Martin. The high scores of the evening were made by Mrs. Fred J. Lash and Mr. Norman Smith. At the close of the evening luncheon was served and the club adjourned to meet October 18, the host and hostess to be announced later.

The Holly Embroidery club will meet for the first time this season on Thursday, October 19, with Mrs. Carl L. Bonett.

Mrs. W. H. B. Gadd entertained the members of the Evening Card club Wednesday, having as guests Mrs. Joe Green, Miss Julia Ryan and Miss Rose Kearns. Mrs. A. C. DeArmond was admitted to club membership and the big scores of the evening were made by Mrs. Gadd and Mrs. DeArmond. The club will meet in two weeks, October 18, with Mrs. F. E. Babcock.

The Oak Park Embroidery club was entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Hudson, who had as special guests Mrs. H. G. Eastman and Mrs. A. Krushil. Mrs. Jessie Nichols will be hostess to the club next Wednesday, October 11.

The Pioneer Study club will meet October 16 with Mrs. R. R. Denham instead of Mrs. E. W. Spivey as previously announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Anderson of Newton, Kan., arrived today to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Bentnett.

The Twentieth Century club will hold its first meeting of the year Friday at the library. The leader for the day will be Mrs. H. Coulter Todd who will be assisted by Mrs. W. E.

in cooking and by effort and practice learn to cook. You can if you will. Also be quick to appreciate what your husband is saying; listen intelligently. When he seems to want you to laugh be obliging and laugh, and when he is serious respond to him with seriousness. Probably you listened to what he had to say far more attentively before marriage than you do now. Don't let him know the efforts you are making to please him. If he thinks it is natural and spontaneous he will probably be more pleased.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have been married less than a year and already I feel that I am losing my husband's love. He used to tell me about his work and everything he was doing before we were married and now he doesn't tell me anything. When his father and mother come to our house he talks to them about things they understand and that he hasn't mentioned to me at all. He has told me I am stupid and not to be so silly. It hurts very much and I don't know what to do. I can't seem to have my husband stop loving me. He used to stay at home every evening and now he often goes over to his mother's and doesn't ask me to go along. I am not a very good cook and he knew it before he married me. But now when I spoil things he makes sarcastic remarks. Do you know of anything I can do to make my husband love me as he used to and enjoy staying with me instead of his mother and father? UNHAPPY WIFE.

You will have to gain your husband's respect by proving to him that you are capable and not stupid. Take lessons and go to work. Every time he goes near her desk she looks down and sort of blushes. I wouldn't do anything to act cute for a boy because I don't think it is nice. Do you think the boy will go with me again? What can I do to win back his love?

BETTY.

The boy may in time decide that he likes you better than the other girl. You must not let him see that you care because he goes with her or that you are anxious to have him come back.

Oysterettes
